Extract;

Written to A. Hitler after invitation to paint his portrait 1936

"When I look at you... whether I stretch out all kinship or close my eyes and so accept a more abstract value, a reverse side - I know not! Only from negations can I wholesomely conceive you... for I have no courage sufficient to stomach your aspirations and attainments. If you are superman - let me be forever animal..."

'Self Portrait' restoration - partly destroyed 1941. Original in Germany formerly owned by Hitler.

Exhibited in O Shaw 1948
